MEETING NOTICE

PreserveMaryland Advisory Committee Meeting

September 30, 2010

9:30AM – 12:00PM

100 Community Place
Crownsville, MD 21032

PreserveMaryland is a broad-based and forward-thinking planning process that will define a vision and goals for the future of historic preservation in Maryland. The outcome of this process will be a new State Historic Preservation Plan for Maryland, which will be forwarded to the National Park Service for approval pursuant to the National Historic Preservation Act.

The Maryland Historical Trust, an agency of the Maryland Department of Planning, is leading this initiative with the support of numerous organizational stakeholders representing a wide variety of interests. The Advisory Committee is appointed by the Maryland Historical Trust Board of Trustees, and this notice is being posted in accordance with the Maryland Open Public meetings Act.

This meeting is open to the public, but advance registration is requested.

For more information please contact Cory Kegerise, Administrator of Local Preservation Programs at (410) 514-7635 or ckegerise@mdp.state.md.us.
